

Groaning

Music by: Rob Perez & Rick Mals

Lyrics by: Shane Lankford & Tony Correlli

Verse 1

Groaning

As the earth is growing

Of all the sin I've sown

Quaking

As the ground is breaking

I here it everywhere

Verse 2

Heavy it weighs on us

Crying from the mountains

So many tears running

Filling all the waters of the seas

Chorus

Under and above me

Inside all around

Dying from our choices

Decaying of the ground

Beware the care you don't give

That care will wear you down

So give a second thought here

Before you're under ground

Repeat Verse 1

Verse 3

We hang from this curse

To every promise given

With your hold we won't fall

Into this mess we have made

Bridge

Still an echo's heard

Of a choice the first one made

He passed it down

Forcing us to bare the weight

Who can lift it off

Take it all away,,,Only you can,,,,Only you

Verse 4

Hope given from above

I see it in all eyes

Freedom causing it to be

From the one who groaned and set me free

Repeat Chorus

Mr. Orion

Music by: Rob Perez

Lyrics by: Shane Lankford & Tony Correlli

verse 1

Mr. Orion waiting while my years collect
Mr. Orion standing way beyond my reach

I'll come and go from dust to dust
only a winter to your eye

but you're not free
and you're not God,
but He will be there when you die

chorus

I know you're watching me hunting all night through but do you also see the Shepherd watching you?

verse 2

Mr. Orion with your family around
Sisters and twins and creatures fill the universe

I gaze above
As many have
I'm trying hard to understand

The Story Of
The Great Design
The work of His glorious Hands

Chorus

bridge

Envious of your Celestial perspective
I'll never leave this earth during my life span

but time is not eternal
the universe is ending
And God has made me part of Heaven's plan

Don't you wish that you could fathom
Angels long to comprehend

Savior of the human race
Spirit made to be with Him

Chorus

over me, over you, further than the end the shepherd never sleeps, and does what no one can

Darkness Inside

Music By: Rob Perez

Lyrics By: Tony Correlli & Shane Lankford

Digging deeper try to hide
Thoughts you want to leave behind
Flowing back through severed ties
Can't escape what lies inside

Run away
And start again
Build your walls
But it's still within

Face the fact
You are what you fear
Can't deny
The evil here

Isolated away from temptation
Feels deceptively safe
But you're only about to discover
It was all a mistake

Shocked to learn
Where evil lives
Breaking down
Walls caving in Breaking down

Tear it down
Open up
Let it flow

And it washes away

Let it flow

And it washes away (echo)
And it washes away

Never had to see the truth
Till it started bleeding through Take a look with clearer eyes
What is left when darkness dies

Music by: Rob Perez
Lyrics by: Shane Lankford

Intro

What have I done
What do I do now
Where do I go from here
I sit here on the 9th floor
Waiting for my time to come

Verse 1

Thoughts scatter to where the crow flies
And there is a place I have no way to find
A peaceful temple along the rivers edge
That's where I hope to find peace again

Pre-Chorus

Broken dream awaking me
Broken heart
All these broken hearts are breaking me

Chorus

Empty are the ones I see
In many ways there just like me
Indebted to you I am
To know I'm not just like them

Verse 2

Thoughts scatter to where the crow flies
And there is a place I want so much to find
A timeless rest under the blossoming shade
That's where I know I'll find my peace again

Repeat Pre-Chorus & Chorus

Bridge

Now I know what I have done
Now I know what to do
Now I know where to go from here
Leaving the 9th floor
My time has come and gone

Repeat Chorus

Little Girl Lost

Music by: Rob Perez

Lyrics by: Rob Perez & Tony Correlli

Intro

Shaking of your soul
For questions un-returned
Forever changed
Sinking to a place
Further from your home
Away from me

Verse 1

The world around you grew so dark
You ran from the pain
And those you loved were unaware How lost you became

Verse 2

How long will you search
Without my light and grace
An angel without wings
All of heaven cried
In witness of that day – the day that you became

Chorus

Little girl lost - I'm right here
Just call my name and I'll find you
Little girl lost – I'm right here
I have your soul here in my heart

Verse 3

Do you feel my strength in you
The start of the change
And all the wounds you hid from view
Are fading away

Verse 4

Nailed onto your cross
To live inside your pain
I tied you to my side
Share a single heart suffering the same
Were suffering the same

Repeat Chorus

Bridge

Hold on Hold on
I am coming for you
Hold on Hold on
Don't give up too soon

Repeat Chorus

Red Tree

Music by: Rob Perez

Lyrics by: Perez/Lankford/Correlli

V1

Where do I begin Coming where I'm from Worn the face of unbeliever
Who have I become Living where I've been Bare my heart so I can see you

V2

What you did for me
Took my throne within
I raise you to a pinnacle high
Nothing I can bring You gave all I need
Never knew the debt that I owed

Chorus

Tears fall from the Red Tree
Drowning out the life in me
Washed to where the air is new
Alive again because of You

Living how I would I'm lost in my rules
Couldn't see the time You gave me
Changed one desperate day
Opened to the Truth
Sacrifice born on the Red Tree

Bridge

On the Red Tree You cried
On the Red Tree I died
All that I would owe
You paid all that I would owe

Chorus

Tears fall from the Red Tree
Drowning out the life in me
Washed to where the air is new
Alive again because of You

Land Of No Choices

Music by: Rob Perez

Lyrics by: Shane Lankford & Tony Correlli

Verse. 1

Torn away or pulled from
The solace of the world they knew Leaving soon or coming to A place where you and I live and breathe

Silent eyes and moving limbs
Speaking with the feelings from inside
Crying no or screaming out
Don't take away our time to see the sun

Chorus

One day you'll wake up
Haunted by voices
For the ones from the Land of no choices
(get to speak)

Verse. 2

One day you'll wish that
You never closed their mouths
Cannot hide or cannot run
You'll stand and see their lives before your eyes

Chorus

Bridge

He forms with hands
He breathes within
The soul that will Give them life forever

You take with hands
You steal their breath
But the souls of all
Will go on forever

Land of no choices

Chorus

No more (repeated)

V1: So full of talk but not of thought
You've really got it figured out
Your head is spinning while you speak
Confusing thoughts they rule your brain

V2: Sweep all the homeless off the streets
Throw all the immigrants in jail
Tear welfare mothers from their kids
I hope they never make you king

Whispers: Who do you think you are?

V3: Finding funerals, soldiers honored here
Screaming painful lies, why would you do this now?
Children holding signs, chilling words of hate
Blaming death on gays, Phelps take your flock back home

Chorus: Do these thoughts come from your head?
You freak me out
Do you believe what you just said?
You freak me out
Can you be serious?
You freak me out

V4: Workers paradise, hammer caked with blood
Millions sacrificed, social experiments
Censored and blinded by powerful police
Prisons and mass graves for those who don't agree

Chorus

V5: Try to instate Islamic law, start chopping off their hands and feet
Cover your mother head to toe, turning your wife into a slave

V6: It can't be called the house of peace
When brothers kill each other off
Violent displays filling the streets
So little love for human life

V7: Murder other faiths, torture innocence
Load kids up with guns, to fight unholy wars

Chorus

Behind My Closed Eyes

Music by: Rob Perez

Verse.1

Where are all of these memories from Ones that I would love to leave behind Ones that I still hold on to
From that old dark world I lived in so long

Just a moment to contemplate
Times that seem so much a part of the past
Molding of the future man
Showing who I'm supposed to be

Chorus

Way behind my closed eyes
(eyes will open up)
All colors bleed to black (black turns into white)
Even though fear may rise
(rising within me)
He shows me my strength is within me

Bridge

Behind these closed eyes (4x)
Like a stranger
I feel so close
Gathering Your glow
Visions become glory

Behind these closed eyes (4x)
Taken by Your glow
Visions of Your glory

Verse. 2

Building up then breaking down again
Weaving in the strands of who You are What a picture You're painting
What astounding work...this one called man (2x)

Breaking out of this veil consuming me
Uncovering what's beneath it all
Image of the Maker
Showing who I'm supposed to be

Repeat Chorus

She Fits Well

Music & Words by: Shane Lankford

Oh Lord
What just happened to me?
Shake my thoughts back to this world
A small white bundle
What is this I see?
Lying broken in the stones

I'll hold on
To you my little one
While I carry you from here

Chorus

She fits well
In my arms tonight
I could never let go
She fits well
In my arms tonight
I will not lose hope

V3

Oh Lord
Give me strength to make it over Hills so high
Crying out
As I can barely make it
Carry me Lord

Chorus

She fits well
In my arms tonight
I don't want to let go
If she falls
To Your arms tonight
And if she falls...
Oh Lord if she falls...
May You carry her home

While I'm Alive

Music by: Rob Perez & Rick Mals
Lyrics by: Tony Correlli & Shane Lankford

Verse 1:

It's you again
Right where I left you yesterday
I was running
While you were waiting around

I see you passing the time in the shade
Are you coming?
Or are you waiting around?

Start showing up
Stand and be counted look alive
Are you with me?
Or are you out the game?

You're losing ground by the mile
Get on your feet
Or have you thrown it away?

Chorus

But while I'm alive
I'll keep pressing on
And you'll know when I'm done when I drop to the ground
Catch my breath on the other side

Verse 2:

What is it worth?
Without a drop of your sweat
Something easy
Is nothing worth fighting for

Still hoping luck will find your pot of gold
Sue someone
And sit and wait for a check

What have you done?
Nothing to show for the time that you've had Look around you
Do you see someone to blame?

Calling for help when you're left on your own
So useless
Why are you wasting your time?

Chorus

Bridge:

Far away from here
I am looking onward
Finally at rest

Drinking of Your love
Taking in Your mercy
Perfectly sustained
Perfectly fulfilled

Verse 3:

It's you again
Standing taller
I see that something has changed

You look awake and aware I'm impressed
Are you ready?
Come on and get in the game

Chorus 2:

So while you're alive
Make your moments count
Take it past the red
Till the clock runs out
So while you're alive
Give it more and more
While you're alive
Keep pressing on
